

Our Bio: Reynolds and Toni Lee

RC and Toni Lee have been proudly married for 32 years. We were married on October 23rd 1976 in Orlando, Florida at my parent's home (Bishop Josh and Lillie Leonard) by Bishop Henry Leonard. RC was 23 and I was three days shy of 20. We have two sons. Sage Christopher, now 32 and divorced; who has one daughter, our sweet granddaughter, Lyric Rene and Casey Raynard 27 and single.

We were introduced through a mutual friend of ours at a local social club, The New York Times. RC said, when he shook my hand he new we had a connection. Little did we know what we would have to endure to really be connected.

(...for this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh? Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.)

Our first big disagreement was caused because He wanted to move to Miami, Florida and pursue a career as a Videographer for a local television station. You would think that I would have been happy but I wanted to stay in Orlando to be around family. Well, we separated for the first time. During our separation, I was invited to attend a Home Mission Service and accepted the Lord Jesus as my personal Savior. And by the way, I did eventually move to Miami with baby in tow. RC was saved nine years later and now serves as a Deacon with EBON Temple, Inc.

As we grew together in the Lord, we began to study and apply the biblical principles of marriage. Along with a little coaching from my grandmother, (Sr. Mother Mamie Leonard), in our early years and through watching my mother (Lillie Leonard) love my father for over 50 years, today, we are enjoying the kind of fulfilling relationship God meant each marriage to be. We've found that you can have complete peace and satisfaction in your marriage regardless of circumstances. God is no respecter of persons. His truth is for all who believe and trust Him by obeying His word. All you need is a teachable attitude and the willingness to let God work in your life. As you trust God and obey His Word, you will find, as we have, The Joy of Marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. RC Lee